GRAND
CAFE 05
AT THE SCOTSMAN

"There are few hours in life more agreeable than the hour dedicated to the ceremony known as afternoon tea." [Henry James]

AFTERNOON TEA

Thought to have been invented by the 7th Duchess of Bedford as a means to counteract the "sinking feeling" which she experienced in late afternoon, this glorious tradition has since become a much loved staple of British socialising.

'Tea rooms' were all the rage in the late 19th century, quickly becoming THE place for meeting friends and sharing gossip. They were also considered one of the few respectable places for women to meet without a chaperone, so the out-of-home Afternoon Tea took off like a social network. At some stage music was added to the occasion, and fashionable young people attended afternoon 'tea dances' in the most stylish of hotels, a practice which continued until the Second World War.

Today, we invite you to join us at The Grand Cafe to enjoy our very own revival and interpretation of Afternoon Tea- handmade with love and care, it is truly a joy to behold, and one we are happy to share with you.

VEUVE CLICQUOT
VINTAGE BRUT 2008, FRANCE

*The Bold, Lively, And Pure Flavour Transforms Into A Powerful, Structured Palate, Delicately Chiselled From The Minerality Of Champagne's Chalky Terroir. The Generosity Of The Pinot Noir's Fruitiness Resonates Harmoniously With The Freshness
Of The Lightly Candied Citrus Fruit Aromas (Lemon) Which Are Embellished In The Finish With Delicate Hints Of Toasted Notes.*

VEUVE CLICQUOT ROSÉ
VINTAGE 2004, FRANCE

*The Clear, Taut Flavour Moves Into A More Fully-Bodied, Structured & Energetic Palate. Its Minerality Reveals Generous
Red Fruit Aromas From The Pinot Noir (Morello Cherry)
Combined With Notes Of Slightly Candied Citrus Fruit From
The Chardonnay. Hints Of Sweet Pastries Point To The Wine's
Long And Slow Maturation On Lees.*
